COAL STRIKE IS POSTPONED

Strike Notices Put off For a Fortnight.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—The coal strike notices which were effective to-mor- row have been postponed for another fortnight it was announced this after- noon. This action resulted from a conference between Premier Lloyd George and representatives of the miners and owners.

Miners Will Re-ballot

LONDON, Oct. 1.—The general be- lief prevails to-night that a strike of the coal miners will be avoided as a result of a decision taken to-day to call for a re-ballot of the miners on the question of ceasing work. A re- ballot is expected to result in an ac- ceptance by the men of an offer by the owners of an advance in wages of two shillings a shift when the output of coal reaches 245,000,000 tons a year. This was the rate of the output for the first three months of the present year.

Engine Damage

RIGA, Letivia, Oct. 1.—The United States destroyer Kane suffered dam- age to her engines while outside Riga but is not in need of assistance, according to a wireless message re- ceived here to-day. The Kane expects to reach Riga to-morrow morning, the message said. The United States tor- pedo boat destroyer Brooks sent a wireless dispatch to the Kane offering assistance, but the Kane replied, "Thanks, need no assistance."

Appeals For Release

LONDON, Oct. 1.—Mary MacSweeney to-day sent letters to the Archbishops of Westminster and Canterbury in which she expressed the belief that her brother, Mayor MacSweeney, was being "supernaturally sustained in his struggle," and asked them to use their influence to secure his release.

Apostles of Gloom

(Washington Post)
Between Bolshevism, the income tax and the rise threatened in the price of coal, because of the "vac- ations" of the miners everybody now- days is inclined to be pessimistic. Time was when men and women were accustomed to look on the bright side of things, to laugh occasionally and to enjoy the fleeting moments as they passed, but now a Climmerian gloom seems to have settled on the human race and the world so rarely smiles that the gaiety of nations may be supposed to have gone into the dis- card and been lost in the shuffle.

IN BRITISH NAVY AT EIGHTY

Dr. S. Wesley Smith, formerly Commissioner of Lunacy for the State of New York, Tammany politician and Alderman in the old Tenderloin district, physician for the old Gilsey House in its heyday, founder of the Wesley Seymour dispensaries, friend of the rich and poor alike, famous on the lecture platform, went to war when nearly eighty years old. Think it over, boys. In 1917 his application to the United States Navy De- partment was rejected on account of the age limit, but, as the old saying is, if you want a fight you can find it. On July 28, 1917, he entered the British naval service, and much of his time has been spent conveying troops from Suez to Bombay and Calcutta. The ship has just dropped into an Amer- ican port and it will soon be on its way again. The photograph shows him in his British naval uniform.

CANADA'S NAVY COMING OUT

Will Leave England In November.

OTTAWA, Oct. 1.—Canada's Navy consisting of the cruiser Aurora and destroyers Patriot and Patricia will be commissioned on November 1st, and will leave England for Canada shortly after that date. Capt. H. G. H. Adams will command the Aurora. The two destroyers are to be under the command of Lieutenants C. P. Beard and G. C. Jones. Fifty men and boys have been sent over from Canada to form part of the person- nel of the vessels.

Murders In Belfast

BELFAST, Oct. 1.—A police patrol was ambushed yesterday near Tubber- curry, County Sligo, by a large party of armed civilians. District Insp. Brady was shot, the head constable gravely wounded and another con- stable less seriously wounded. Un- confirmed reports say several houses have been burned in reprisal for the attack.

Promised Fifty Per Cent Profit To Eager Investors

BOSTON, Oct. 1.—The Federal Grand Jury to-day indicted Charles Ponzi, promoter of the scheme by which millions of dollars were ob- tained from investors on promises to pay 50 per cent profits, for using the mail in a scheme to defraud. The in- dictments of which there are two of forty-three counts each were the longest held here in years. Ponzi is now a Federal prisoner at East Cam- bridge jail and is under indictment also by State courts for larceny.

EXPORT IN IRON ORE TO BE INCREASED GREATLY

President of the Dominion Steel Corporation to Visit Bell Island

MONTREAL, Oct. 1.—President R. M. Wolvin of the Dominion Steel Corporation left to-night for the East on an inspection trip, which will in- clude visits to the Sydney Steel plant, the Cape Breton coal district and the Company's ore mines at Wabana. Mr. Wolvin's visit to Wabana mines is in connection with the resumption of export trade in iron ore, which during the period of the war and since the armistice was reduced to negligible proportions. The President stated that it was hoped that the advent of 1921 would see a profitable trade in ore again established in new overseas connections formed through the British Empire, the steel corpor- ation being an important factor in the market for ore.

Mines In Riga Bay

RIGA, Oct. 1.—The United States destroyer Call, struck a mine as she was entering Riga Bay this afternoon, according to a wireless. No details were given.

FINDS FATHER LONG SUPPOSED TO BE DEAD

Old Letter Results In Ham Family Reunion.

OMAHA, Sept. 19.—After having been thought dead for a quarter of a century, William P. Ham, formerly of Shubert, Neb., who disappeared 25 years ago, has been found living quietly in his old home in Farmington, N. H.

The discovery was made by his son, Elmer Ham of Shubert, through an old letter written 40 years ago, which Elmer Ham found in an old trunk. The elder Ham dropped out of sight lack in the '90s. His family could find no trace of him. He left considerable property. Twenty years ago he was declared by the courts to be dead and the property divided. Fifteen years ago Mrs. Ham, wife of the missing man, died. Elmer Ham was the only one of the four children remaining in Shubert.

A month ago, while cleaning out the attic of their old home in Shubert, Elmer discovered an old trunk which had not been opened since his father disappeared. Among the old papers in the trunk he found a letter from his father's sister, in the old Ham home in Farmington, N. H. Elmer Ham has forgotten that his father ever had a sister.

Following the discovery of the letter a yearning came over Elmer to see his kindred in New Hampshire. Without any announcement of his coming he boarded a train and went to Farmington. Here he found not only his father's sister, but the father himself, now 80 years of age.

A reconciliation between the father and son took place and later the old man intends coming to Shubert to spend some time with Elmer Ham.

According to the story told by the old man, he and his wife quarrelled until the husband determined to leave home. Without saying anything to anyone of his intentions, he left Shubert and went to San Francisco. When a young man he had made several sea voyages, and he secured employment on a tramp steamer bound for the South Sea Islands. It was ten years before he again set foot on American soil. By that time he had become completely estranged from his Nebraska family and continued following the sea.

A few years ago Mr. Ham became too old to work and retired, but instead of coming back to the west he went to his boyhood home in Farmington, where he has since resided. He draws a pension of $60 per month as a Civil War veteran, having served in that war with the 5th New Hampshire Infantry.

MARSHAL PETAIN AND MADAME HARDON MARRIED

PARIS, Sept. 15.—Marshal Henry Philippe Petain, commander-in-chief of French armies in France during the latter years of the great war and the French general whose work at Verdun made him a national figure, was married to Madame Hardon on Tuesday morning, says the Petite Parisien. The ceremony was witnessed by General Fayolle, another noted French commander during the war, and Madame Gabriel Ferrier, widow of the celebrated painter, who was step-father of the bride. Marshal Petain and his bride left last evening for the Riviera, where the former owns a small estate.

The marriage is a realization of a lifelong dream of the marshal, who knew the bride when she was a very young girl, long before her first marriage. He always cherished a tender memory of her, and hoped that, some day, circumstances would enable him to marry her.

The bride, according to the Excelsior, is very wealthy. Newspapers here compliment the marshal on the strategy he used in routing reporters and photographers, not one of whom had an inkling that the wedding was to take place.

RUSSIA'S FUTURE

(London Times.)

Whatever trials and convulsions the future may hold in store for the unhappy Russian people before they once more attain to the dignity of ordered nationhood, we believe that the tragic figures of the late Tsar and Tsaritsa will steadily grow in public esteem and will beckon their people on to a recovery of self-respect and of self-control. Before that goal is reached, many a terrible reckoning may

FISH COMING IN

Marked Improvement in Trade—Many Schooners Discharge Fish to Exporters.

(Trade Review.)

Monday last there were twelve schooners discharging fish at the North Side wharves, Barr's to Job's inclusive, viz:—

2 at Barr's, 3 at Hickman's, 3 at Goodridge's, 1 at Murray's, 1 at Job's. There were besides, some carloads at Balne Johnston and Job's. The day was particularly fine for the work and gave promise of a resumption of the old time activity, and there were five schooners laden in the stream and four coming in the Narrows.

The per centage of sunburnt fish seems to be growing less in the cargoes, and it is believed that the latest caught and cured fish will be the best this Fall.

The schooner "Andreas Roca" owned by the Spaniards, is at Hickman's wharf and will load there in a few days for Lazo & Co., Seville, the fish being bought by Hickman & Co.

Tuesday was a regular steamer day for dry codfish, and about 40 cartloads came into town over the road from Torbay, Flatrock and Pouch Cove. The report that the cull is easier has resulted in inducing a good many fishermen to let go their fish at the prevailing prices, fearing that they may not be so favorable when the big fleet of schooners come on from the outports with their shore fish. Most of the fish that is coming in this week is of a good run and averages about $9.00 per quintal.

There is in consequence of this, a marked improvement in the demand for drums and fish casks, and the coopers are getting busy sending down packages to the different exporting firms.

It is believed that we have seen the lowest point in the depression and that conditions will improve every day till the climax of activity is reached—about the second week of November. The movement in the whole Trade and Commerce of the city and Country, and this, we expect to see before the middle of October.

ST. JOHN'S, NEWFOUNDLAND, SATURDAY, OCT. 2nd, 1920.

THE 'NEWS' IS GAUGHT!

Every word in the "News" editorial this morning bears out the impression that the Advocate's words yesterday struck right home, and that the "News" is as near being ashamed of its close connection with the Italian Consorzio and the enemies of Newfoundland as that paper can be. But the "News" wants to throw the blame over now on a "half a dozen firms" who received messages from the Consorzio. Well, we challenge the "News" to name six firms to whom the Consorzio sent messages, saying that it was not interested in our fish! Furthermore, if the Consorzio were not interested in our fish it is very strange that it would take the trouble to cable half a dozen firms to say so. And why, pray, should the Italian Consorzio control the buying of all fish for Italy and obtain the blessing of the "News" in doing so, when that peculiar sheet would deny the right of Newfoundland to control the selling of fish to Italy?

Italy was not interested in our fish last year, nor the year before, but Italy was well glad to get Newfoundland fish these years, and will be glad to get it this year. This year the Consorzio is a little bit wiser and tried its "bluff" a little earlier in the season. It is not going to take any chances on not getting enough fish. The Italians know as well as we do that there is not going to be any surplus of Nfld. fish supplies, and want to get their requirements arranged for. That the markets are brightening is also attested by the rumour of another firm in the field, who intend to buy fish, and who would not buy unless there was a jolly good chance to make a dollar or two.

The "News" is very open about the Consorzio's connections here. It says that it "believes" that no person or firm is in the pay of the Consorzio, but "there are firms and individuals with whom the Consorzio occasionally communicates on matters of business." Exactly as we said. And the only business in Newfoundland that concerns the Consorzio is FISH! And the Daily News says that in a question as to whether Newfoundland or Italy shall give in, there is no doubt that Newfoundland should give way. If the "News" has no more pride in country than that, what is the use of arguing about the Fishery Regulations at all?

The Tory newspapers have turned more people in favour of the Regulations than they have turned against them. All over the Island the cry is: "Coaker is a man—hands off the Fishermen's Friend," and there is scarcely one honest opinion that is an out and out opponent of the Regulations. The fishermen are glad that Coaker has been courageous enough to bring in a Standard Cull, and they have eagerly followed the directions in making good fish. The result is particularly seen on the Labrador. The cargoes down there are made up of the finest article of food ever shipped off the coast—clean, well-washed and lovely-looking fish.

No matter how good the fish would have been, if there had been no control, a lot of this fish would have been sacrificed by shippers eager to sell, and willing to undersell each other for the sake of getting rid of the fish. What a change is now, when shipments are regulated, prices are fixed and each shipper knows exactly where he stands.

Everybody is satisfied but the politicians behind the "News," "Telegram," and "Herald." They are not satisfied because they are not in power, and so want to make the people discontented by blaming the Government for everything, even the extra bit of sun this summer. But the people know that these are politicians of the "bluff" type, politicians who waxed fat and became millionaires when they had the Government, and who celebrated their own political ends by the wasteful expenditure of half a million dollars in an effort to buy the electorate last fall. These very same Tories said that our fish would not be marketed last fall and that the price would fall; these very same Tories said that there was a terrible time coming this summer because there would be no salt; these very same Tories said that the price of fish this Fall would be so little that we could not stave off a crash—but everyone of their

(CONCLUSION)

As I have said, I left the Press Party at Banff, in the Rockies. I came from Banff to Eagle, a small station east of Winnipeg, where I had a pleasant day with Mr. Charlie Pittman and his family, then to Montreal, making direct connections there for Sydney, thence back to Newfoundland having covered about 8,000 miles in a month. The tour continued to the Pacific Coast, then came back by a different route to Toronto for a day at the Exhibition there, finishing at Quebec September 11, most of the Party embarking on Sept. 15 for England. The whole tour was planned on a magnificent scale, the delegates being treated in princely fashion. The two special trains were made up entirely of sleepers, each delegate having a whole section or a compartment. The first train was a C.P.R. Special, the cars of wood, the second a Government National Railway Special, the cars being of steel construction. When the latter was affectionately called a "Tin Lizzie" by the occupants of No. 1 train, they were promptly told that it was much better than a "shack"! Representatives of the two Railway Companies were in attendance on each train, and were most obliging in the imparting of information needed. Mr. C. F. Crandall of the Montreal Star, and his aides were continually kept busy, keeping track of everything and everybody, looking ahead and making arrangements for every little detail of the trip.

A doctor and a nurse were on each train, baggage could be opened at any time, clothes presser and general repairer was on hand; typewriter and office staff could be availed of, and generally everything was done for the comfort of the delegates. "Tipping" on the trains was not permitted, a lump sum being contributed at the end of the trip from each. Canada generously offered to pay the expenses of each delegate right from his home, but some would not allow this. Canada treated us as guests indeed, but will be repaid by the interest in that great country which could not fail to be aroused in each delegate's mind. Canada is a country of boundless resources and can easily multiply its population by ten without being crowded. Like Newfoundland, she needs development, and there is a wonderful spirit of pride in their country shown by all Canadians. We imagine that there are places in Newfoundland which can never support a larger population, but look at Canada, much of that country having summers shorter than ours, with winters just as cold, and see the prairie town blossoming as a rose and the waste places flourishing like a garden. Of course it was impossible to more than rush through each place, and the guide books which one only now has time to look over, make one wish there had been more time to see many buildings of interest. Of these guide books and illustrated booklets, there was no end, some of them very expensively and beautifully gotten up. Newfoundland can well take a lead from this and do herself no harm.

doleful expectations has been proven false. THEY ARE FALSE BECAUSE WE HAVE A GOVERNMENT WHICH DOES NOT INTEND TO LET THINGS "GO" AS IS THE TORY WAY. We have a Government that intends to keep up the price of fish, and so enable the fishermen to live in a decent way. "Blue Ruin" Tories wanted "blue ruin," for their own purposes, but they were disappointed. They will be disappointed still more as time goes on.

The Increased Ore Export!

The news that President Wolvin is coming to Newfoundland to visit Bell Island in connection with the resumption of export trade in iron ore is an indication that there will be greater activity than ever at that centre, greater numbers of men being needed for mining; and the general development schemes of the big British Empire steel merger will be extended to Bell Island. The Daily News is worried to-day about the fact that the Government might want to tax this Company over much, but the "News" and the public can rest assured that this Government is well able to take care of the country's interests in this. One thing is assured that Newfoundland must not give up advantages possessed by her without some return.

What we want to draw attention to in a general way is that new avenues of employment are fast coming to the fore and there is little chance, after a while, of any necessity for men to go out of the country for work. The Tories draw attention to the fact that some men are leaving the country, but do not mention anything about those who are coming back to the country every week. The Tory propaganda would encourage men to leave their native land, and every opportunity seems to be taken to "blast" the prospects of Newfoundland and paint a picture of "blue ruin" that is quite unnecessary.

The Grand Concert in aid of the Convent of Mercy School at the residence of Mrs. Harris, Carpasian Road, on Monday night calls for more than passing notes. Rarely has it been my pleasure to have been present at such a delightful entertainment. Mrs. Baxter excelled herself in the arrangement of the programme which was replete with the choicest selections of operatic and other musical gems excellently rendered by the city's leading artists. Mrs. F. J. King, charmed her hearers with three beautiful songs. Mrs. C. Cahill and Misses Ryan, Mitchell, Shea and Devine each treated the audience to several most charming selections, the applause showing how keen was the appreciation of all present. The outstanding feature of the performance was the admirable violin solo of Mrs. (Dr.) Murphy. This lady won enthusiastic applause, many enjoying her playing for the first time. She is a violinist of rare ability and is a very welcome addition to St. John's musical talent. Miss Mary Keegan who contributed two stirring recitations was "Dark Rosaleen" personified. Messrs. Arthur Williams and P. Ruggles, both prime favorites were heard to splendid advantage and were repeatedly encored. Recitations by Mr. Harold Brown and Mr. P. Halley were greatly enjoyed, the former giving selections from Dr. Drummond's ever popular "Habitant" poems—his elocution and "Habitant" dialect being faultless. The writer can only express the hope that he may be privileged at some future date to enjoy a repetition of such excellent music as that rendered at Monday night's Concert. It was a splendid success in every way.

ST. MICHAEL'S ACADEMY

(Western Star, Sept. 22.)

St. Michael's Academy at St. George's conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, is an educational institution of high standard. It does not advertise very extensively but none the less the results of its work are most gratifying to those who have the educational advancement of the youth of the country at heart. We learn that one of its pupils, Miss Melissa Butt, recently secured the award of a Silver medal from the Sloan Duployan Shorthand Society for accuracy, while diplomas were obtained by Misses Kelly, Collins, Hartigan, Flossie Butt, Davis, Pine and Coady. A recent art exhibition held by the pupils proved a gratifying success. Magnificent displays of painting and needlework, illuminating and other handicraft delighted the eye of the art lover and surprised even those who are aware of the high standard of excellence attained in the Academy. The Sisters are to be congratulated on the high standing attained by the pupils in connection with the C. H. E. and Trinity College of Music examinations. The Academy is situated on a very commanding site at St. George's overlooking the vast sweep of the Bay. The health giving breezes, pure atmosphere and tonic climate of that section of the coast ensure that sound minds are developed within sound bodies. Parents from all parts of the country are sending their children to St. George's realizing that their physical and mental well-being will be looked after by the good Sisters of Mercy; and there is yet room for fresh pupils.

OBITUARY

WILLIAM WHITE.
(To the Editor)

Dear Sir.—Kindly allow me space to record the death of William White, who died August 16th, after an illness of a few months. Though he suffered a lot he was never heard to murmur, but bore his sufferings patiently, knowing it was God's will. He was waiting for the call to come up higher to a mansion prepared for the best. He was liked by all friends, and he will be greatly missed both in his home and in this little place, as he was ever ready to lend a helping hand. We know it is hard to his family, but then we must bear in mind that in the midst of life we are in death. May the Lord give us grace to bear whatsoever burdens he sees fit to lay upon us assured that all things work together for good. We pray Him to comfort the mourners and impart to them the consolation of and impart to them the consolation of is ended we shall meet to part no more.

He was laid to rest on the 18th Sept. in the Methodist cemetery by the Rev. Levi Hussey. A large number of friends attended to pay their last respects to him.

Left to mourn are a wife, 2 daughters, 5 sons, 2 of whom are in New York and 4 brothers. May the Lord help them in their lonely hours.

Then fall the earth, let stars decline,
And sun and moon refuse to shine.
All nature sink and cease to be,
That heavenly mansion mine shall be.

To the bereaved family I offer my deepest sympathy.

MRS. ROBERT TUCKER.
(To the Editor)

Dear Sir.—Will you kindly allow me a little space in your paper, the Weekly Advocate, to record the death of my dear sister, Mrs. Robert Tucker, who passed peacefully away on June 25th, 1920, aged 24 years. She has been laid aside the past six months with that dreadful disease, consumption. In all her sufferings she was never heard to murmur or complain, but bore it all with patience. She was missed by all who loved her. She was buried in the Methodist cemetery by Rev. E. Davis. She leaves to mourn a loving husband, dear little girl of eight months, father, mother, 3 brothers, 4 sisters and a great number of relatives and friends.

We shall miss her, oh how sadly,
Loving hearts alone can tell.
We have lost her, Heaven has gained her;
God indeed does all things well.

One we loved has left our number,
For the dark and silent tomb;
Closed her eyes in death's slumber,
Faded in her early bloom.

She is gone but not forgotten,
Never will her memory fade,
Sweetest thoughts will ever linger
Around the place where she is laid.

IN LOVING MEMORY

(To the Editor)

Dear Sir.—Will you allow me a little space in your paper to record the death of a friend, Mrs. Dorcas Dalley, wife of Mr. Henry Dalley, who passed away Sept. 16th, 1920, at the age of 46 years. She was the daughter of the late Francis Milles, Herring Neck, a strong, healthy woman and only sick a few days, then gone from us. Like the grass, in the morning its green and growing, in the evening is cut down, dried and withered. She leaves to mourn a husband, three sons, mother, four sisters, two brothers, and many relatives and friends. She was laid to rest in the C. of E. cemetery by the Rev. Mr. Marks.

HERBERT TUFF.

(To the Editor)

Dear Sir.—Will you kindly allow me space in your most valuable paper, the Advocate, to record the death of my dear brother, Herbert Tuff, who passed peacefully away on August 13th, 1920. He went to the fishery this spring, was taken sick and had to be sent home. He was only home a week when we took him to Pilley's Island hospital, and that's where he died of meningitis. Poor boy, how he suffered none can tell, but our loss is Heaven's gain. He was laid to rest in the Methodist cemetery. The funeral service was conducted by our lay reader, Mr. Charles Batstone. He is gone where parting is no more. The deceased was 18 years old. He leaves to mourn his sad loss mother, father 2 sisters, 5 brothers, and a number of friends. He was greatly liked by all who knew him and will be greatly missed in the home and by those with whom he came in contact.

A loving one from us is gone,
A voice we love is still,
A place made vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.

He is gone but not forgotten,
Never will his memory fade,
Loving thoughts will always linger
Around the grave where he is laid.

FINED $50.00 FOR OBSTRUCTING POLICE

Last Tuesday night a West End laborer, who has several times appeared before the magistrate, interfered with the police while in the discharge of their duty. Consts. White and King were arresting a painter, and were obliged to handcuff him, while attempting to get control of their prisoner the accused interfered, tried to drag the officers from their man but was unsuccessful. Mr. McCarthy, J.P. who presided this a.m. fined the accused $50.00 or 30 days, remarking that this business of interfering with the police in the discharge of their duty was becoming altogether too prevalent and a precedent had been established in the police court which he intended to follow. The police were the custodians of our law and order and should be assisted not assaulted.

An ordinary drunk arrested last night was released on payment of cab fare.

WHITE NAPE FISH IS ON EXHIBITION

"Picture" Fish as Made by Fishermen at Fogo.

A specimen of White Nape fish is now on exhibition in the Board of Trade Rooms. It is a "picture" fish as the fishermen call it, and was caught and cured in Fogo by one of Mr. Joseph Long's dealers. It was cured with Setubal salt.

There is now an argument amongst those who have seen it, as to whether it was washed from the knife or washed only from water horse.

Mr. Long hopes to get this point decided in a few days. It is beautifully split and shows a slight flouring of the salt, especially towards the edges. The center near the sound bone has the golden yellow cast so much desired by the Spaniards.

A Nasty Accident

This forenoon a little daughter (a tot of 18 months) of Mr. M. Malone, who had been given a cent, began playing with it and the inevitable occurred. She put it in her mouth and it slipped down her throat and became lodged near the Uvula. It looked desperate for the little one for a while and its mother became almost frantic with fear believing that it would choke. Kind neighbors ran to the Western Fire Hall and telephoned for a doctor, but Mrs. Malone recovering from her fright showed that the maternal instinct fits a mother for all emergencies and after protracted efforts the woman removed the coin from the little one's throat. The child came very near choking. As the coin was taken from the little one's mouth, Dr. Carnell who had received a hurried phone message and responded in his car, was at Mrs. Malone's door. He gave the proper treatment for shock and partial suffocation and after an hour or so the little one was quite well again.

S. S. ROSALIND SAILS

The Rosalind sailed for Halifax and New York at 1 p.m. today. A persistent and from every view point senseless method is being followed by the Tory Papers in reporting the sailing of the Rosalind and other passenger ships as regards their second class passengers. For instance an item in the Daily News to-day conveys the impression that a hundred refugees are leaving home to seek employment up along. As a matter of fact of the 20 steerage passengers booked for New York, more than half are returning. The same applies to the Halifax list and of the whole number 70 the majority are young ladies very few of whom are compelled whether by the "poor times" or the dread of sheer starvation to leave Newfoundland. Within the country this twaddle has no effect, but such propaganda may have serious consequences to the business community, and it is from this view point that we think it worth while to deny such "News".

The following is the Rosalind's passenger list:

For Halifax: Miss M. E. Hallett, Miss M. McGrath, Miss M. Butler, Mrs. E. Luscombe, Capt. R. Rafuse, Allan Rafuse, Miss. Mahar, Miss Parsons, Clarence Dawe, H. J. Glass, Miss M. Chislett, Miss S. Tucker, Mrs. C. E. Cobb, Miss M. Gorman, Mr. C. Rendell, Mr. W. Pike, Mr. C. Jubrin, Mrs. B. Day, Miss J. Viosey, W. J. O'Rourke, A. Green, F. K. Tucker, Miss A. Tucker, Miss W. Killand, Miss R. Killand, Miss G. Tucker, Miss E. Tucker, Mrs. Parks, Miss J. Mercer, 40 Steerage.

For New York: Mrs. Angus Reid, Miss Job, Adolph Carter, Miss Tobin, Miss Colbert, Mrs. M. J. Sweeney, Miss R. Sweeney, Miss J. Sweeney, Miss Mary Ryan, Miss Agnes Deniff, Miss May Ryan, Miss L. O'Brien, Miss G. Roach, Miss Rose O'Neill, Jack Larkia, Miss E. Quilty, Mrs. Capt. Wittshire, Miss S. Wittshire, Miss M. Turpin, Miss A. Meehan, Miss F. Meehan, Miss K. Kendall, Miss M. Kendall, Mrs. P. G. Butler, Mr. P. G. Butler, and 4 children, Miss K. Lundrigan, Mrs. L. McCue, Mrs. A. Warren, and child Miss Warren, Ford Warren, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Stafford, Mrs. McCowan, Mr. Edgar Bowring, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Bowring, Mrs. J. Phippard, Miss M. St. John, Mrs. Malone, Frank Warren, P. Higgins, L. A. O'Brien, Mrs. Jas. Miller, M. Hawke, Mrs. S. F. Rogers, Denis Bartlett, Mrs. Squires and child, Miss Clooney, Miss A. Badcock, Miss M. Mullooney, Hubert Hutton, T. H. Hamlin, Mrs. M. Hunt, Ed. Drew, J. Crumming, 20 Steerage.

Many famous people possess nicknames bestowed upon them by their intimates. I was told the other day that among the many employees of his huge business Sir Thomas Lipton is always known as "The Trier."

COST VS. VALUE

What your property cost before 1914 is a poor criterion of its value to-day. Thus, if you insured $1,000 then, should you not to-day increase your protection by nearly as much again? I can easily arrange for this increase at very little cost to you. —PERCIE JOHNSON, The Insurance Man.

The funeral of the late Mr. Richard Byrne took place yesterday afternoon and was attended by a large number of citizens. Mr. J. T. Martin had charge of the undertaking arrangements. At the Cathedral the last prayers were recited and final absolution imparted by Rev. Dr. Greene and interment was at Belvedere Cemetery.

About 6.30 p.m. yesterday two men more or less under the influence of drink had a falling out on Water St., near Goodridge's office, and for a while they smashed each other good and hard, the claret coming freely. Friends parted them and got them off the street.

We are glad to note that Dr. MacDonald of Duckworth St., who has been seriously ill is able to be about again. To-day we met the genial medico on the street and though he is in appearance a little broken up, still looks as if he will eventually get over his trouble.

We regret to learn that Mr. Thos. Walsh Sr. of Parker & Monroe's Boot and Shoe Factory and father of Mr. Thos. Walsh, manager of the East End store, was taken suddenly ill this morning. Mr. Walsh's illness is not of a serious character and his physician, Dr. Carnell, who was called, hopes that after a rest and good medical treatment he will regain his former strength.

HAS NO HOME

A Chilean who seems to feel that this is a favored spot to live in applied at the police station the night before last for lodgings. He was sent to the Seamen's Institute for the night but showed up again this morning in distress. He claims he is suffering from paralysis and has no boarding house or friends. He recently has been deported, but was not allowed to land at a Canadian port. We understand that the same party was around here last year and was arrested no less than six times.

RALLY AT WESLEY

Large numbers of Sunday School pupils are expected to meet at Wesley Church to-morrow as it is Rally Day there for the Sunday School. The services begin at 2.30 p.m. and speeches will be made by prominent church members while solos and recitations will be given by the girls of the Orphanage and Primary Department. All are welcome.

A Close Call

While Master Harry Mott, son of Mr. H. Y. Mott, clerk of the House of Assembly was proceeding from school to his home of Barnes Road during the dinner hour he had what must be regarded a providential escape from serious injury if not instant death. He was riding his bicycle and had crossed a vacant field intending to pass through a gap on to Barnes Road taking him to his home. As he neared the fence he saw an automobile coming up the road and seeing that he could not stop the bike, or cross safely in front of the car, decided to turn sharply and escape by running along with it. Mr. Gus Stafford, who was driving the car slowly, did not see the bike until it was almost on him, but applied the brakes as quickly as possible. In some way not easily accounted for, the car collided with the bike, and passed over both boy and bike. The bike was badly smashed but providentially the lad was not seriously injured. Mr. Stafford carried the boy to his house nearby and did everything possible for him. On examination it was found that save for a bruise below the right knee and a severe shaking up, there were no serious results. How the car could have passed completely over the lad without greater injury is a mystery. Dr. Cowperthwaite was called and apart from the bruise referred to, there does not appear to have been any further injuries sustained by young Mott.
